

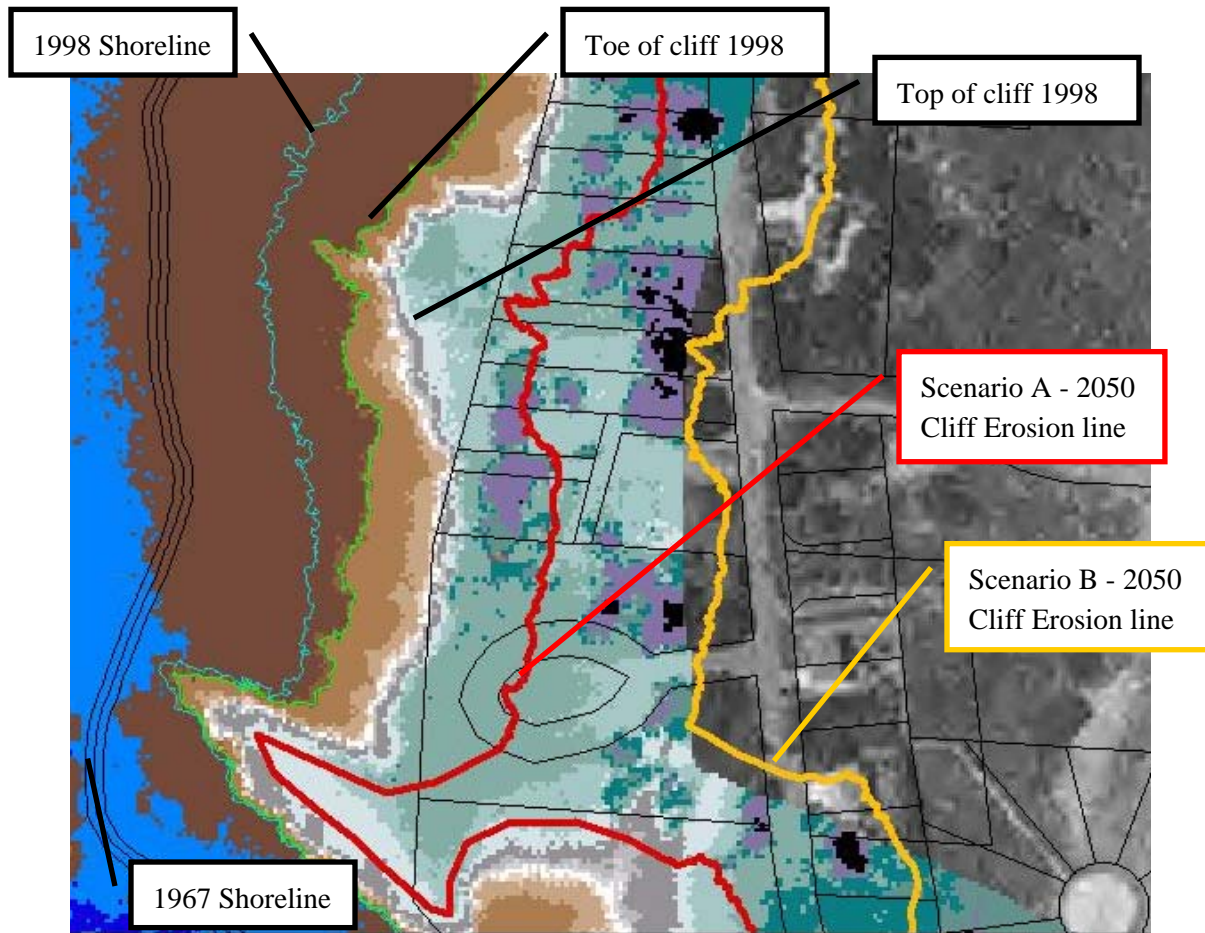

Exhibit 3 – Example of an erosion envelope

The “erosion envelope” is shown as the area between the Scenario A and Scenario B lines. The envelope represents the range of uncertainty inherent in different climate change scenarios. Background elevations on the coastline (left) are from 1998 LIDAR data.