

I strongly support doing a partial removal that will leave most of the structure in the channel as an artificial reef. The fishing is much better around the current oil platforms than even most natural reefs and since the islands are being closed to sports fishing in large part, we need the oil rigs as a good fishing source.

Phillip E. Gulley