

DCTF

Proposed road map of activities

June 29th – Bodega Bay	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Current sport fishery effort• Refining sport fishery management• Season modifications (sport fishing)• Other topics: equal north/south rules, harvesting of females, size• Brainstorm potential issues and benefits of Dungeness crab advisory body and marketing commission• Possible formation of sub-committees
August 10th – 11th – Crescent City	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Latent permits• Essential fishery information needs• Current and future commercial fishery effort• Refinement of commercial management:<ul style="list-style-type: none">-Season modification-Season opener-Fair start clause• Introduction and review of management tools and options• Short and long-term objectives for improved management• Possible formation of sub-committees

DCTF

Proposed road map of activities

September 8th – San Francisco	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Commercial regulations – Pot limit restriction options and harvest allocation• Short and long-term objectives for improved management• Additional issues highlighted in situational analysis
October 13th – 14th – Half Moon Bay	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Commercial regulations – Pot limit restriction options and harvest allocation (re-visit)• Review of all management topics and proposed recommendations• Proposed changes to recommendations based on interest-based negotiation
November 9th – 10th – Fort Bragg	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Full review of proposed recommendations• Final edits based on discussion• Voting and approval• Need for a permanent Dungeness crab advisory body (conduct needs assessment; introduce case studies)• Need for a crab marketing commission (conduct needs assessment; introduce case studies)