

Exhibit 4: Seafloor map of the Santa Barbara Channel. This is an initial map produced from the hydrographic survey and is meant to illustrate the superior quality of data currently being collected. This data will be processed to remove artifacts, ground-truthed and then interpreted by experts to create habitat maps.